

7. For a thirty-minute assessment, which one of the following types of tests will achieve both low reliability and the least coverage of content and skill?
- Completion.
  - Essay.
  - Multiple choice.
  - True/false.
8. As a teacher, how would you ensure that students handle the resources at their disposal carefully to prolong their lifespan?
- Allow students to handle their resources.
  - Explain to students how to handle them.
  - Give the resources to responsible students.
  - Handle the resources yourself with care.
9. A teacher prepares a lesson note and states his objectives as follows: "students will be able to know the importance of food". The teacher lacks the ability to _____
- consider the ability level of students in his instructional objective.
  - indicate the condition under which the behaviour must be exhibited.
  - indicate the level of acceptance in his instructional objective.
  - state the instructional objective in behavioural terms.
10. A teacher has a goal of engaging in ethical practice. In reflecting on his progress toward achieving this goal, the teacher should give the greatest consideration to which of the following questions?
- Am I treating all students in a fair and non-discriminatory manner?
  - Do all students view school as a welcome and encouraging place?
  - Have I established a classroom environment that is business-like and rule-oriented?
  - Is my personal teaching philosophy aligned with parents'/guardians' goals for their children?
11. In a lesson, a teacher called a particular student before asking her a question. Which of the following best explains the teacher's action?
- The teacher's intention was to enable the student to _____
- be ahead of her class mates.
  - correct her mistakes.
  - enjoy the class.
  - pay attention in class.
12. A teacher was posted to a rural area where he noticed that the performance of students in the school was not encouraging. He met the parents in the community and explained to them the need to provide their wards exercise books, feed them and show interest in their education. In this regard, the teacher's intention was to _____
- educate parents on the performance of their wards.
  - encourage students to learn from their parents.
  - help parents to provide students with their needs.
  - seek the support of parents and enhance students' learning and well-being.